may be approved. I would add that the District Magistrates should take a larger share in the disposal of criminal cases in their jurisdiction - 45 cases for eight districts for a whole year represents the extents of their activity in magisterial cases. This seems to show that they take this part of their work easy. a reproach which is levelled against them in all departments of their work

Chief Court of Mysore,

Bangalore, dated 18th October 1911.
20th

From,

The Registrar of the Chief Court of Mysore,
B a n g a l o r e

To,

The Secretary to Government,
General and Revenue Departments,
B a n g a l o r e .

Sir,

I am directed to forward the enclosed Report (with 2 copies) on the administration of Criminal Justice in Mysore for 1910 - 11, together with the usual statements and the reports of the District Magistrates.

The ~~jealy~~ delay of 18 days in the submission of the Report is partly due to the late receipt (on the 25th September 1911) of the Mysore Division Report and Returns and partly to the fact that the Tumkur District Report and Returns had to be returned for correction.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Registrar.

REPORT ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE FOR THE YEAR 1910-11.

------:::0:::------

THE CHIEF COURT.

Original Sessions Work.

1. The number of persons committed during the year under report was 84. Including 10 persons pending trial at the end of 1909 - 10, the number for disposal was 94 involved in 60 cases. Fifty five cases involving 85 persons were disposed of, leaving 5 cases and 9 persons pending at the close of the year. Twenty two cases involving 40 persons resulted in acquittal and 33 cases involving 45 persons ended in conviction.

Trial by Jury and with Assessors.

2. Of the cases actually tried, 4 were by jury and 44 with the aid of assessors. The Judge approved of the verdict of the jury in all the four cases. The Judge agreed with the assessors in

34 cases,

34 cases, differed from one assessor in four cases and from all in three cases. In the remaining three cases the opinion of the assessors was not called for as the accused pleaded guilty.

Average duration.

3. The average duration of Sessions cases disposed of was 61'77 days @@ against 51'28 days in the year previous Witnesses.

4. The number of witnessesx examined was 710. The allowances paid to them amounted to Rs: 2127-1 - 9.

Miscellaneous work.

5. There were two petitions of a miscellaneous nature for disposal and both of them were disposed of.

Appeals instituted.

6. The number of appeals instituted was 128 as against 144 in the year previous, and of these, 124 were from persons convicted and 4 were by Government from orders of acquittal.

Disposal of appeals from convictions.

7. Inclusive of 35 appeals pending

from

from the previous year, there were for disposal 159 appeals (from convictions) against 144 in 1909-10. The Govern - ment Advocate appeared in 143 cases to support convictions.

The total number of appellants in these appeals was 256. The sentences passed against 13 of them were reversed while the sentences passed against 32 were altered or reduced. In the case of one person the proceedings were @@ quashed and the appeals of 171 persons were dismissed. The appeals of 39 per- sons were pending at the close of the year.

Disposal of appeals against orders of acquittal.

8. Inclusive of 4 appeals pending against orders of acquittal at the close of the previous year, there were 8 appeals for disposal as against 12 in 1909-10. In 5 of these the orders of the lower Court were reversed, in one the order of the low - er Court was upheld and the remaining

2 cases

2 cases were pending at the ~~close~~ end of @ the year.

Average duration of appeals.

9. The average duration of appeals was 51'66 days as against 59'39 in 1909-10.

Cases under section 374, Criminal Procedure Code.

10. In 6 cases involving 7 persons, @ sentences of death were submitted to the Chief Court for confirmation. Adding 3 cases involving 3 persons pending @ from the previous year, there were for disposal 9 cases and 10 persons. In the case of one person the sentence was reversed and he was set at liberty, in one case involving 2 persons the sentence of death was commuted into transportation for life and in 5 cases involving 5 persons the sentences were confirmed. Two cases involving two persons were left pending at the end of @ the year.

Memorials to His Highness the Maharaja.

11. All the five persons whose sentences sentences were confirmed, submitted memorials to His Highness the Maharaja @ for the exercise of the prerogative of mercy. Four of them were rejected and in the other case the sentence of death was commuted into transportation for life.

Revisional Powers.

12. The number of calendars submitted to the Chief Court for perusal was 2488 as against 2714 in 1909-10. Records were called for in 33 cases. Twenty @ four cases were referred by ~~the~~ District Magistrates and 3 by Sessions Judges. Adding 9 cases pending from the previous year there were for disposal 69 revision cases involving 194 persons as against 68 cases ~~involving~~ and 134 persons in 1909-10. The details of disposal are given in Statement ~~No.~~ VI.

APPLICATIONS.

13. Including 35 applications pending from the previous year there were for disposal 174 applications. Convictions or or orders of the lower Courts were set aside in two cases, sentences were reduced or altered in 4 cases, proceedings were quashed in five cases and new trials were ordered in seven cases. The orders of the lower Courts were not interfered with in 72 cases while 60 applications were summarily rejected. In three cases the sentences were enhanced. Thirty eight petitions of a miscellaneous nature were also disposed of. The number of applications pending at the close of the year was 25.

COURTS SUBORDINATE TO THE CHIEF COURT.

Receipts and Charges.

14. The receipts amounted to Rs67775-2-6 against Rs: 70442 - 1 - 7 and the charges to Rs: 291553 - 12 - 0 against Rs: 272104 - 0 - 11 in 1909-10. The decrease under the head 'Receipts' which is but small is partly due to fewer non-cognizable cases being instituted during the

the year under report which has affected the stamp revenue and partly due to the smaller amount realized by the sale of unclaimed property. The increase under 'Charges' is due to the fluctuations in the pay of the Magistrates. A sensational case of theft of sandal wood in Hassan District also contributed towards enhancing the charges as large sums had to be paid as batta to witnesses from Bombay.

Offences reported.

15. The number of offences reported was 16064 as against 16951 in 1909-10. The number of offences returned as true was 14063 as against 13861 in the year previous. The offences are classified in detail in Statement II.

Persons brought to trial.

16. Inclusive of 3417 persons pending trial at the end of the previous year, (the cases of 97 persons which were transferred from one Court to another not being taken into account), 30,459 persons persons were brought to trial as against 31,449 in 1909-10.

Statement II shows how these persons were dealt with. Of the persons brought to trial 6511 or 21·38 per cent were convicted and 20,467 or 67·19 per cent were acquitted or discharged.

Offences under the PENAL CODE.

17. The number of persons tried for offences affecting the human body was 14,281. Of these 1136 or 7·67 per cent were convicted and 11,747 or ~~8221~~ 82·21 per cent were acquitted or discharged. As regards offences against property, the percentages of convictions and acquittals or discharges were 32·53 and 49·57 respectively.

Offences under special and local laws.

18. The number of persons convicted of offences under special and local laws was 2230 and the number acquitted or discharged was 1644, the percentages being 55·52 and 40·93 respectively.

19. The

Heinous Offences under THE PENAL CODE.

19. The number of cases and persons accused of heinous offences are shown in the following table as compared with the figures of the previous year : -

Order thereon No. J 2432-40/cls 129-11-3. encls reports.

Dated 24 Feby 1912 ~~December 1911~~

The total number of criminal cases reported to the Magistrates during the year was 16064 against 16951 in the previous year and the number of persons brought to trial was 27042 against 28554. The decrease was chiefly under offences against property. Of the total number of persons involved, 6511 were convicted and 20467 acquitted or discharged. There was a fall in the total number of ~~offences~~ heinous offences reported though the number of murder cases was larger than in the previous year. It is noted that, of the cases disposed of, only 45, or exactly the same number as in the previous year, were dealt with by the District Magistrates. In this connection Government desire to point out that the District Magistrates ~~should~~ ought to take a larger share in the disposal of criminal cases in their jurisdiction.

Sessions cases. - The total number of cases disposed of by the Sessions Courts, including the Sessions Courts of the Chief Court, was 124 against 123 in the year 1909-10. The average duration of these cases was slightly longer than in the preceding year, noticeably in the Chief Court.

~~Government observe that~~ the report does not furnish any details about the work of Honorary Magistrates, but from the statements appended and the reports of District Magistrates of Mysore & Bangalore it is seen that they disposed of a considerable number of cases. The District Magistrates will convey the acknowledgments of Government to these gentlemen.

Inspection of Courts.- Nearly all the subordinate Criminal Courts were inspected by the respective District Magistrates; and the Sessions Judge of Shimoga inspected all the courts presided over by Assistant Commissioner Magistrates in the Shimoga District and two such courts in the Chitaldrug District. The Report is silent as to the inspection work done by the Sessions Judge of Mysore. The Chief Court were unable to inspect any Subordinate Courts. ~~on account of heavy work.~~

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Judicial and Legislative (Courts), dated 24th February 1912.

READ—

Letter No. 1697—137, dated the 18th October 1911, from the Registrar of the Chief Court of Mysore, forwarding the Report on the Administration of Criminal Justice in Mysore for the year 1910-11.

No. J. 2432-40—CTS. 129-11-3, DATED BANGALORE, 24TH FEBRUARY 1912.

ORDER THEREON.—The total number of criminal cases reported to the Magistrates during the year was 16,064 against 16,951 in the previous year and the number of persons brought to trial was 27,042 against 28,554. The decrease was chiefly under offences against property. Of the total number of persons involved, 6,511 were convicted and 20,467 acquitted or discharged. There was a fall in the total number of heinous offences reported, though the number of murder cases was larger than in the previous year. It is noted that, of the cases disposed of, only 45, or exactly the same number as in the previous year, were dealt with by the District Magistrates. In this connection, Government desire to point out that the District Magistrates ought to take a larger share in the disposal of criminal cases in their jurisdiction.

2. Sessions Cases.—The total number of cases disposed of by the Sessions Courts, including the Session division of the Chief Court, was 124 against 123 in the year 1909-10. The average duration of these cases was slightly longer than in the preceding year, noticeably in the Chief Court.

3. The report does not furnish any details about the work of Honorary Magistrates, but from the statements appended and the reports of District Magistrates of Mysore and Bangalore, it is seen that they disposed of a considerable number of cases. The District Magistrates will convey the acknowledgments of Government to these gentlemen.

4. Inspection of Courts.—Nearly all the subordinate Criminal Courts were inspected by the respective District Magistrates; and the Sessions Judge of Shimoga inspected all the courts presided over by Assistant Commissioner-Magistrates in the Shimoga District and two such courts in the Chitaldrug District. The report is silent as to the inspection work done by the Sessions Judge of Mysore. The Chief Court were unable to inspect any Subordinate Courts.

C. S. BALASUNDARAM IYER,
Offg. Secy. to Govt., Gen. & Rev. Depts.

To—The Registrar of the Chief Court of Mysore (returning the District Magistrates' report).
The District Magistrates of Districts.
